CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate Discusses State-Making.

THE HOUSE DEADLOCKED.

The Senate Dependant Pension Bill Much Amended in the House.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Teller reported back the House bill to give validity to certain patents for inventions that were irregularly issued, being signed by Second Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Hawkins, instead of by the Secretary himself. Passed.

Butler reported back the House bill to ratify and confirm an act of the New Mexico legislature, creating county offices for San Juan. Passed, with an amendment declaring Aztec the county seat.

Among the bills introduced and referred were the following: By Allison, for the establishment of a permanent Court of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain and France. By Chandler, for the completion of the Direct tax of 1861. This bill revives and re-enacts those sections of the Act of 1861, imposing a Direct tax of $20,000,000, and provides for the collection of all unpaid balances with five per cent. interest thereon, the States to have the privilege of assuming their quota, less fifteen per cent. deduction; otherwise, the tax is to be collected from the land of the individual as provided in the original act.

A bill to authorize the sale to aliens of certain mineral lands was taken up for consideration.

Faulkner, a member of the Committee on Mines and Mining, from which the bill had been reported, spoke in opposition to it. He regarded it as a bill fraught with danger. The Act of 1887, which this bill proposed to modify, was the first Act passed which affected the holding of real estate. The bill would not only allow individuals to obtain mineral rights in this country, but it would allow corporations formed in England, France or Germany to purchase any number of patents to mining lands. Stewart asked Faulkner whether there was any law in West Virginia that prevented aliens from having an interest in mining property.

Faulkner—None that I know of.

Stewart—Nor in any other State.

Faulkner moved an amendment providing that where mining claims which have been patented are acquired by partnership, a majority of the partners and directors shall be citizens of the United States.

Stewart said that there seemed to be a total misapprehension of the object of the bill. It left the law, so far as mining claims were concerned, in the same condition as if the act of 1887 had not passed, and the Senator, himself, (Faulkner) had demonstrated that no evil had resulted from it as it had then stood.

Dolph said the law of 1887 had been aimed against the evil of allowing foreigners to hold large tracts of agricultural lands. The bill simply restored the condition of affairs in the mining districts of the Territories that existed before the act of 1887. Without final action on the bill or amendment the bill was laid aside.

Morrill gave notice that he would on Wednesday address the Senate on the President's annual message, and Coke gave like notice for Thursday.

A number of bills were then introduced and referred.

A bill to provide for the admission of the State of Dakota into the Union and for the organization of the Territory of Lincoln, was taken up. A substitute reported from the Committee on Territories to the original bill established the boundaries of the proposed State and designated the remaining portions of the present Territory as the Territory of North Dakota (not Lincoln), with Bismarck as the capital.

Platt, Chairman of the Committee on Territories, said the bill was one of four which had been reported by the Committee on Territories for the admission of new states. It provided for the admission of the southern part of Dakota under a constitution already formed. The other three bills were enabling acts for the Territories of Washington, Montana and the northern portion of Dakota. The proposed State of South Dakota had a population of 400,000, and he thought that they had a right to be admitted as a State to participate in the next Presidental election.

Vest. Do you mean that the people of South Dakota have a legal and constitutional right to come into the Union as a State without action on the part of Congress.

Platt. No.

Vest. That claim has been asserted and I wanted to know whether the Senator from Connecticut endorsed that proposition or not.

Platt said there were now in the Union nine States having less population than the proposed State of South Dakota. He argued that South Dakota had brought herself within the precedent under which other States had been admitted. It could not be said that she had done anything irregular. Why then should she not be admitted, and admitted now? Why should the Senate turn a deaf ear to her prayer? Why should the Senate refuse to participate in that greatest, grandest act of legislation, the admission of a new State into the Union, thus adding to the grandeur, strenth, glory and renown of the American Republic?

Butler obtained the floor, and the bill went over till to-morrow.

After the Executive session, the Senate adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

Filibustering Still the Order of the Day.

The sixth day of filibustering over the Direct tax bill was begun in the House of Representatives this morning. Dilatory motions and roll calls commenced as soon as the session opened.

The proceedings this morning were utterly destitute of interest. Until 2:30 the clerk continued to call the roll upon the various dilatory motions submitted. At that hour the House found itself without a quorum, and Weaver moved an adjournment. The motion was defeated. Yeas, 80; nays, 151. A call of the House was then ordered.

At 10:15 E. B. Taylor asked unanimous consent that the House take a recess until 10:45 to-morrow. The Speaker pro tem put the request and after a short pause declared it granted, bringing down the gavel just as Breckenridge, of Arkansas, sprang to his feet with an objection, which came in a second too late. The recess was therefore taken.

At about 6 o'clock Oates asked the unanimous consent of the House to have a resolution read for information, but he was promptly met with objections from the Republican side. The resolution he intended to have read was to the effect that a large number of attorneys, lobbyists and claim agents are working actively to secure the passage of the bill now under consideration, and that a committee should be appointed to ascertain what contracts or agreements existed between any attorneys, lobbyists or agents and the beneficiaries of the aforesaid bill, and to report to the House in thirty days, and that pending such investigation the further consideration of the bill be postponed.

At 7:30 the Sergeant-at-Arms appeared and reported that of the twenty-five members absent without leave, twenty were out of the city and the other five could not be found. He was directed to continue his search.

At about nine o'clock further proceedings under the call were dispensed with, and Campbell, of New York, moved as an amendment, pending the motion for a short recess, that the House take a recess until 11:45 to-morrow morning. In order to prevent a vote being taken on this proposition, Breckenridge, of Arkansas, revived the tactics resorted to a few days ago, and moved that McKinney, of New Hampshire, be excused from voting. A point of order against the motion was overruled by the Speaker. Taylor appealed from the decision, pending which Breckenridge, of Kentucky, moved to adjourn. Weaver, of Iowa, moved that when the House adjourn, it be to meet on Wednesday night, and Breckenridge, of Arkansas, moved to adjourn until Thursday.

HOUSE COMMITTEE WORK.

The Dependent Pension Bill Much Amended.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The House Committee on Invalid Pensions this morning took final action upon the Senate bill known as the Dependent Pension Bill. A substitute was adopted for the second section, which is the principal section of the bill. The substitute provides a pension for all persons who have served in the military or naval service of the United States for any period, and who have been honorably discharged, and who are now or who may hereafter be suffering from mental or physical debility, not the result of their own vicious habits, which has totally disabled them from the performance of manual labor, at the rate per month of one cent for every day's war service. It further provides the same pension for all such persons who are 62 years of age, or who may hereafter become sixty-two years of age, for and during their natural lives. Section 3 was amended so as to provide that when the widow of any person who had served in the war and been honorably discharged, is in a condition of dependence, or is suffering from any disability recognized by the general pension law, and is sixty-two years of age, she shall be placed upon the pension roll at the rate per month of one cent for every day's war service of her husband. The fourth section was amended so as to make attorney fees for claims filed under the bill $5 instead of $10. The element of dependency placed in the Grand Army bill by the Senate was eliminated so that all soldiers are to be pensioned for their services equally without regard to their financial condition and according to the per diem idea. The amendments were adopted by a strict party vote, the Republicans favoring the provisions of the Senate bill, so that the amended bill may be regarded as embodying the Democratic policy in the matter of pension legislation.

RAILROAD LAND GRANTS.

A bill, general in its character, forfeiting all lands opposite railroad lines not completed within the time specified by law, was agreed to, by the House Committee on Pacific Roads to-day.

Four bills have already been reported by this committee, declaring forfeitures in the cases of the Hastings and Dakota, the Ontenogon and State Line, the Northern Pacific, and the Southern Pacific railroads. The bill agreed upon to-day is intended to cover all unearned railroad land grants not included in these measures. The committee estimates that the land recovered under the lot of bills will amount to about 50,000,000 acres.

Representative Weaver, of Iowa, says another deadlock will occur this week, if the present is broken within the next twenty-four hours. He intends to oppose the passage of the Outhwaite Pacific Railroad bill by dilatory tactics, and says it will likely result in a deadlock of considerable duration, if there is time within which the bill may be taken up.

THE STRIKE.

A "Q." Man Shoots Two Who Assailed His Engine.

CHICAGO, April 9.—At 7 o'clock to-night a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy engine, manned by new men, was approaching the city over the Western Indiana tracks from the southwest. At Forty-Seventh street, a crowd threw stones through the cab window, when Charles Sommers, one of the crew, drew a revolver and fired into the crowd. The ball struck James Boylan, a foundryman, in the knee. At Forty-eth street the engine met the same reception from another crowd, and Sommers again brought his pistol into use. He fired, the bullet striking Mike Welch, a Wabash engineer, in the groin, wounding him fatally. An alarm having been given to the police, the engine was intercepted at Thirty-First street and Sommers was placed under arrest.

The President sent to the Senate this afternoon the nomination of Daniel W. Butler, of Wasco county, Oregon, to be Indian agent at the Warm-springs agency.

Anti-Saloon Elections in Many California Cities—Opium Smuggling by Chinese.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Considerable excitement was caused to-day by the statement that one Dr. Mark Raine attempted to kidnap Florence Blythe, an heiress to the great Blythe estate. It appears that in 1883 a child named Annie Mooney was lost at Belmont during a picnic, and though large rewards were offered she never had been found. Raine became possessed of the idea that Florence Blythe was the missing child, and in 1875, it is said, he attempted to carry her off. On Saturday last he induced the Mooney's to go with him to Berkeley, where Florence was residing with a guardian, Joseph Perry, and claim their child. At the same time he confided his plot to a boy who visited at Perry's. The latter told an officer, and when the parties put in an appearance Raine was arrested. The Mooney family of course failed to recognize their daughter in Florence Blythe. Raine, in the opinion of Chief Crowley, is a crank who ought to spend a few months in the House of Correction. He was held on the charge of attempting to steal the child. The case comes up in two weeks.

Word is received by the steamer Parthia of the annual meeting of the Hongkong Chamber of Commerce, held on the 9th of March. The report represented that a subsidiary special service, via the Pacific and Canadian route, would be advantageous to the mercantile public. It was especially desirable on political grounds, provided the Colony was not called upon to contribute to the proposed undertaking.

The city election at Riverside yesterday was very hotly contested. 859 votes were cast. The officers elected were two trustees, city treasurer and marshal. The decomposed remains of Samuel T. Shreves, son of George Shreves, one of the leading jewelers of the city, was found partly buried in the sand on the beach near the Cliff House, San Francisco, to-day with a bullet hole in his head. SMUGGLING OPIUM.

Childlike and Bland Ah Sin's Dark Ways

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Ho Young, an intelligent looking Chinaman, was taken into custody by Deputy Surveyor Fogarty this afternoon at the Pacific free warehouse. He came for a case of merchandise marked "William White, Household Goods," presented an order for them, poorly signed, and had them loaded on to a wagon when he was arrested. The "household goods" proved on examination to contain 580 five-tael boxes of prepared opium, worth about $4,060. The customs officers claim the opium was brought here from British Columbia having first been taken East to Manitoba and then smuggled across the line into Minnesota and brought here on the cars. The Chinaman claims to have been ignorant as to the contents of the boxes saying he was simply sent for the goods.

The Fisheries Treaty in England.

SOME OLD WORLD ECHOES.

The Imbroglio Over the Bulgarian Match and Russia's Views Concerning That.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

LONDON, April 9.—Earl Granville presided at a banquet given by the Devonshire Club to-night in honor of Mr. Chamberlain. Earl Granville, in proposing the toast of the evening, said he was glad to be able to congratulate Mr. Chamberlain on the result of his mission. His, Granville's, strongest political conviction had always been the importance of maintaining good relations between Great Britain and America. Although he had been the subject of the strongest attacks for his share of the responsibility of the Alabama settlement, he looked back upon its result with the utmost satisfaction. It was certain that if England had broken off the Alabama negotiations, they would not have been assembled there to-day to congratulate Chamberlain on having brought his task so nearly to a successful issue. The whole Liberal party could, on this occasion unite in congratulating the Conservatives on having adopted a liberal policy of conciliation and friendship toward America.

Chamberlain on rising to reply was loudly cheered. He thanked the company for the warmth of their reception, of the toasts in his honor, and said he appreciated fully the unique character of the gathering. He was glad to see so many of his old colleagues, from whom he had temporarily disassociated. He gathered from their presence that every Englishman, worthy of the name, sympathized with the object of his mission. Remarking upon the change of public opinion during the last century, he said it was curious to look back to sincere opinions expressed by Statesmen and writers at the time of the civil war and to note their fears lest America should become a great and agressive power, dangerous to the peace of the world. He spoke strongly in favor of the Confederation of the Colonies and again expressed his hope that the Fisheries Treaty would be ratified.

OLD WORLD ECHOES.

Briefs From Many Foreign Lands.

The House of Commons has adopted the Budget proposals.

Prince Bismarck will go to Varzin on the eleventh instant, which is his wife's birthday.

Forty persons were killed and about 500 injured by the tornado at Daca, India, on Saturday last.

The Rothschilds of Berlin have donated $1,500 and the Schroeders $3.000 to a fund for the relief of the sufferers by floods.

The Empress Victoria of Germany and the Princesses Victoria, Sophia and Margaret started from Berlin for Posen to enquire as to the condition of the sufferers by the flood.

An address has been prepared for public signature at Leipsic, expressing the earnest wish of the people that Prince Bismarck will not retire, and also the confidence that the Emperor will find means to avoid such an irreparable loss to Germany.

An inspired article in the Gajdanine, a Russian paper of St. Petersburg, says that the Battenberg marriage project is a British plot to secure Prince Alexander's return to Bulgaria, to which Russia ought to reply in the mountains of Afghanistan.

It was stated yesterday at Berlin that Prince Bismarck had abandoned his opposition to the marriage of Prince Alexander, of Battemberg, and the Princess Victoria, having gained certain other concessions; and that all the differences between the Emperor and Prince Bismarck are now settled.

The National Zeitung, of Berlin, on the crisis arising from the proposed marriage of Prince Alexander and Princess Victoria, says: "It is certain that the Chancellor has so far overcome all difficulties. It is equally certain that he will retire from office if they recur without his being able to surmount them."

Faure, French ex-Under Secretary of the State, has written to Le Matin protesting against the proposal of the British Government to place a tax on bottled wine. The tax, he says, will principally affect France. The levying of the tax, Faure claims, will not be justified except under a strained interpretation of the Convention of 1882. If the proposal is adopted, reprisals by France will be necessary.

The Empress returned to Berlin this evening. The political crisis will probably become acute again shortly. The Empress is determined to prevail even if Bismarck has to resign. The Emperor in decorating Doctor McKenzie to-day said: "When you came the first time, I confided in you, as you were recommended by my German physicians. I have since had occasion in my own experience to value your capability. I am glad to bestow upon you this order in thankful acknowledgment of your merit and in memory of my accession to the throne."

The Empress arrived at Posen this afternoon. She was everywhere greeted with enthusiasm. The Polish leaders have issued a manifesto asking the inhabitants of Posen to sink their National disputes and unite in welcoming the Empress. In reply to a deputation which met her at the station in Posen, the Empress Victoria said that the Emperor regretting his inability to come himself had sent her to examine as to the condition of affairs and to report to him.

At the wool sale in London to-day a better class of Australian and New Zealand wool was offered. The market was firm though not quotably higher. Following are the details of the days transactions: 2400 bales of Victoria secured 9½d.@1s. 5½d.; do. locks and pieces, 8½d.@1s. 4½d; greasy, 4d.@1s. 1½d.; do. locks and pieces, 4½d.@10d. 2900 bales New South Wales, secured 11½d@1s. 4d.; do. locks and pieces. 7d.@1s. 2½d.; greasy, 4d.@1s.; do, locks and pieces, 4½@8½d.; 3,100 bales New Zealand scoured, 10½d.@1s. 0½d.; do. locks and pieces, 6½d.@1s. 1d.: greasy, 7½d.@1s. 0½d.; do. locks and pieces, 4@9½d.; 300 bales Cape ol Good Hope and Natal scoured, 1s. 1d.@1s. 2d.; greasy, 3½@6d.; 55 bales Swan River greasy, 8d.

The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: Deliveries on native wheat are falling off rapidly, yet prices continue to favor buyers. Sales of the week were 41,596 quarters at 30s. against 46,183 quarters at 32s. 8d. for the corresponding week last year. Flour is depressed. Foreign wheat continues lifeless. The stocks at London increase weekly. The present quantity in warehouse, 358,251 quarters, approaches the greatest known.

The Liverpool quotation on wheat is 1d per cental lower. Corn is firm. Oats have an upward tendency. At to-day's market wheat was steadier, sellers resist further decline. Flour declined 3d. Corn was 3d@6d dearer. Oats advanced 3d.

VIVE LE BOULANGER.

He is Elected to the Chamber of Deputies.

PARIS, April 9.—In the election yesterday to fill a vacancy in the Chamber of Deputies from the Department of the Dordogne, Gen. Boulanger was chosen. He received 59,500 votes against 35,750 for Clerjonnie, the Opportunist candidate. The result was unexpected and has created uneasiness among the Conservatives, who declare that the Boulangist movement is a public danger, and that urgent measures are demanded to check it. The Bonapartists assert that the result in the Dordogne proves that the country demands the dissolution of the Chamber of Deputies, and a revision of the constitution. Boulanger refused to contest the seat for the Dordogne, but his friends forwarded his candidacy.

La Lanterne says General Boulanger will refuse to accept the seat, as he desires to sit for the Department du Nord.

General Boulanger has written a letter to an elector of Dordogne, in which, after expressing his thanks for his election by the people of that Department, he says: "Your vote confirms the necessity of a dissolution of Parliament and a revision of the constitution. I have accepted the candidacy of the Nord. On Sunday next the vote of the Nord will be added to yours in a fresh and significant protest in favor of the National Republican policy.

The Morocco Affair.

TANGIERS, April 9.—An agreement was signed by the Moorish Minister of Foreign Affairs and Lewis, the American Consul, referring the dispute between the United States and Morocco to arbitration. The United States steamer Lancaster, which was expected here, sailed from Gibraltar to-day for Villa Franca.

The League Alive and Kicking.

DUBLIN, April 9.—The Freeman's Journal says: "Balfour's provocative and foolish boast that the National League had been killed, when pricked exploded like a bladder. The meeting held yesterday established conclusively that the league is alive and kicking."

EASTERN EVENTS.

Flashes From Beyond the Rockies.

A St. Louis special from El Paso, Texas, says: Consul Mackey at Paso del Norte yesterday evening had a difficulty with a drunken Mexican, and in the melee which followed the Consul fired two shots at his antagonist without effect.

Peter Pergs, of Omaha, a mechanic, aged 47, last night cut his wife's throat from ear to ear with a razor and then attempted suicide with the same weapon. Mrs. Bergs' wound is thought to be fatal, but the husband will probably recover. Jealousy is said to be the cause of the deed.

Judge Lacombe, in the United States Circuit Court of New York to-day, decided that Geo. Benson, who swindled Mexicans out of $20,000 on bogus tickets for the Patti concerts, must be surrendered to the Mexican authorities. A stay was granted pending an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

The New England Methodist Conference to-day at Melford, Mass., unanimously adopted a report of a special committee expressing indignation at the pending action of Congress forbidding the landing of Chinese, except officials and public men. The Conference ordered that the report be signed by the officers and forwarded to New England Congressmen.

A special to the Chicago Inter-Ocean from Carrizo, Ariz., says: Last evening at 8:30 o'clock, as the west-bound freight train on the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad was nearing this place, the engine was derailed and it plunged down a steep embankment. Frank Ashton, the fireman, and John Bell, a brakeman, were killed. The engineer jumped and escaped without injury. Ten cars were badly wrecked.

RACE FOR LIBERTY.

A Bold Arizona Desperado Escapes.

PHOENIX, A. T., April 8.—J. W. Blankenship, a Constable of this city, had a warrant to arrest one Manuel at Gila Bend yesterday on a charge of assault. Upon having been placed under arrest, Manuel seized the opportunity and broke for liberty. Blankenship fired twice in the air, ordering his prisoner to halt, but the order was disregarded. The race contined until Manuel reached his cabin and grabbed his Winchester. Falling on his knee he took deliberate aim at the still advancing officer, and fired two shots, fortunately not doing any injury. Blankenship halted and fired, hitting Manuel in the left shoulder, whereupon the race was renewed. Manuel got into the bushes, mounted a horse and fled. The officer lost time in searching for an animal to follow, but finally pulled an Indian off a pony and started after his man. The race continued in the direction of Mexico until Blankenship's horse failed and finally gave out entirely, he returning to Gila Bend on foot. It is believed Manuel is seriously hurt.

ROSCOE CONKLING.

The Great Stalwart Probably Dying.

A SURGICAL OPERATION.

The Brilliant Mind Wandering Aimlessly Along the Dark Shores of Eternity.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

NEW YORK, April 9. — Roscoe Conkling's condition changed much for the worse last night. He was bouyed up in the evening by the presence of his wife whom he had not been permitted to see since his illness became serious; but after her departure he sank into a stupor from which he roused but at long intervals, and then only to display symptoms of delirium.

Dr. Agnew, the eminent oculist, called at Conkling's residence last night. At the time of his leaving the patient seemed to be not much worse. Dr. Fordyce Barker said to-day that he feared Conkling's auracular trouble had caused an affection of the brain, which may prove fatal. "All I care to say just now," said Dr. Barker, "is that Mr. Conkling has had a bad change within the last twenty-four hours, and is very poorly indeed. I have called in Dr. Sands and Dr. Delafield, and they in company with Dr. Agnew and myself will visit the patient this afternoon."

At 2:30 A. M. Conkling's condition was unchanged from the last report. At 2 o'clock Drs. Sands, Delafield, Barker and Agnew called at Conkling's house and held a consultation for a few minutes. Afterwards Hamilton Fish called but was not admitted. Dr. Barker at the conclusion of the conference, said that the patient's condition was unpromising, that he was suffering from inflammation of the ear, which had extended to the membranes of the brain, that the probabilities were that Conkling could not recover, although there was a possibility that he might get well. His temperature was 103½ and his pulse 100. Dr. Barker did not think there would be any marked change in the patient's condition for perhaps twelve hours. There is no person admitted to the sick room, except the nurses and Mrs. Conkling and all callers at the house are denied admission.

Drs. Delafield Sands and Barker held a consultation in the case of Roscoe Conkling, between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon, and it was decided to immediately cut through the temporal bone to ascertain whether there is pus lodged on the brain. Dr. Sands is the operating surgeon. The surgeons cut away a portion of the temporal bone and found a secretion of matter, which was removed. The operation was very successful and gives the patient a chance of life. Conkling remains unconscious. It is not expected that there will be any change in his condition for several hours.

At 9:30 the physicians regard his condition as more favorable. Mr. Conkling will probably remain unconscious all night because of the anæsthetic which was administered. Doctors Barker and Sand left the sick chamber at 9:45 and will not return until 9 A. M. to-morrow. The surgical operation performed upon the distinguished patient this evening was a very delicate one. It consisted in the cutting and removing of part of the temporal bone, the incision being made upon the prominence which may be felt just behind the ear. Beneath this lies the mechanism of the ear, and in cases in which this mechanism becomes involved, serious suppuration results, as in this instance, and it becomes necessary to make an opening through which the pus may be drawn off. When this region of inner ear was reached the membrane beneath the bone was cut through, and a drainage tube was inserted, and about an ounce of pus drained from the head, apparently affording the patient great relief.

At 11 o'clock he was resting quietly, his temperature and pulse are the same as at the last report.

At midnight Mr. Conkling was walking up and down the room in a half delirious condition. He sent for Edward S. Stokes, and when he arrived Conkling said to him: "Ed, it's no use, I am gone. I have fought against this for some time. I cannot stand it any longer."

Mr. Stokes in going out, saw Doctor Sands at the door. He asked the Doctor if Conkling had any chance. Doctor Sands said: "He may live forty-eight hours, but I doubt it." Conkling insists on rising and walking about the room, but does so in delirium, as he has not regained consciousness.

At 1:30 A. M. there was little difference in the condition of Conkling. He was then sitting up and was slightly delirious.

Indiana Loses Her State Normal School.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 9.—The State Normal School was burned completely this morning except the walls Eight hundred pupils were in the building when the fire broke out. All escaped without a scratch, but lost most of their books and wraps. In pursuance of the policy of the State, there was no insurance on the structure. Its cost was $189,000, of which the city of Terre Haute gave $50,000, in addition to the grounds.

It was from the steps of this edifice that President Cleveland spoke when he was here last fall.

Temporary quarters have been secured, and nearly all the students will remain at the school.

HATTIE WOOLSTEEN.

Her Confession Not Admitted in Evidence.

TESTIMONY TAKEN YESTERDAY

The Circumstances Attending the Attempted Suicide and the Finding of the Watch.

As usual yesterday the courtroom of Department No. 1 of the Superior Court was crowded with curiously inclined men and women anxious to hear the evidence as it came from the mouths of the witnesses. Ex-Chief Darcy on cross-examination testified that while he had Miss Hattie at the police station he had given orders that no one should be given permission to see her. During the first evening she was not under arrest and she could have gone until she confessed. She had merely been asked to come down. I did not tell her I intended to keep her there until doomsday or until she confessed. After that I held her under arrest for the next three days. She did not say that she wanted a lawyer, and I did not say to her G—d—you, I am lawyer enough for you.

Re-direct examination: Previous to her confession she could have left without my permission.

M. W. BRADY

Testified that he was a detective in October of last year. On the 12th of that month I went to 514 south Fort street about 7 P. M. I went there on my own account, and reported the interview to Mr. Darcy. At 9 or 9:30, Darcy told me to get Miss Hattie. I went to the house and rapped on the window. She asked me who it was. I told her Brady. She asked me what I wanted. I told her Chief Darcy wanted to see her. She said she was in bed, and asked if the next morning would not do. I told her no. She then dressed herself, and we walked leasurely to the police office. I talked to her on the way down, and tried to impress her with the fact that she was connected with the Harlan murder. I think I told her about the buggy standing in the yard all night. I think I tried to impress her with the necessity of telling the truth, that it would be better for her if she did tell it. I do not remember telling Darcy "here is Hattie, I will go and bring Minnie." I told Darcy that Minnie was at the theatre, and that I would afterward go and get her. I went after her later in a hack.

Cross-examined for the people: was not instructed to arrest Miss Hattie. I was told to bring her to the office. I did not use force. After I took Miss Hattie to the police station I went back to the girls' room and returned at about 11 o'clock. The first word I said to Miss Hattie was that it was a pleasant evening. Then I said that I did not think that Minnie would enjoy the theater, for I had seen her crying before she went. I asked her if she enjoyed her buggy ride last Thursday evening. I don't blame Harlan for getting stuck on you. Then I said something to her about telling the truth. I tried to impress upon her mind the fact that we were in possession of sufficient facts to connect her with the Harlan murder case. I think that I told her she was the last one seen in the company of Dr. Harlan. I said nothing to her which would have had a tendency to lead her to hope for leniency if she told the truth. I did not use the word "confess." We were walking along quietly and she had a hold of my arm. I offered her no inducement of any kind, nor did I use any threatening language. I was kind of making love to her.

Judge Cheney here ruled that the confession could not be admitted under the ruling of the Supreme Court, which was to the effect that no confession could be introduced where the defendant had been told that it would be better for her to confess or where she was in charge of officers.

CHIEF DARCY

On direct examination identified the pistol and watch and chain as having been found in a gum grove. He testified: I went to the gum grove to dig up the watch and pistol. The place they were buried had been indicated to me. It was about ten or fifteen yards from the fence, close to the root of the tree. There was an old tin can over the place where they were buried. (Identified the can) The watch and pistol were wrapped up in this stocking. Hattie Woolsteen was standing by me when I got the articles. She told me where to go to find the watch and pistol on the evening of the 12th. I dug them up on the 13th of October. When we got to the grove she directed me to go to the particular tree under which the articles were buried. She told me how they were wrapped up. When the pistol was found there were either two or three cartridges discharged. The watch had run down. I had been told that the piece of cloth had been cut from the buggy lining. Miss Hattie first called my attention to it on the night of the 12th.

W. N. HART,

Of the Examiner, testified that he had picked up the tin can in the gum grove. On a later visit he had found a rag tied around a tree a few feet from where the can laid.

At this point a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

Chas. C. Phelps testified that he lived at Fairview at present, but in October he lived at 514 South Fort street. He had known Hattie and Minnie Woolsteen as far back as September. They had the front room on the ground floor. He heard of the burning of the Barbey barn on the 7th or 8th of October. It had burned on the night of the 6th of October. He had seen Hattie on the 7th of October about half-past 6 o'clock in the morning. She was in a buggy and was sitting with her back toward him. The shafts were toward him and she was turned around. The horse was not hitched to the buggy, but was tied to a tree. Witness had just arisen and was going to breakfast. Miss Hattie was sitting facing the back of the buggy. She had her hat on. He had asked Minnie if he could help hitch up the horse. The girls only lodged at the house, and did not eat there as far as witness knew. He had not noticed Miss Hattie particularly, for he was paying more attention to the horse.

Cross-examined: Mr. Splane accompanied me down stairs and we walked around the house toward the place where the horse was hitched. Mr. Hass offered to help Miss Minnie harness the horse, but she refused, saying she had harnessed horses for fourteen years. When I first looked at Miss Hattie she looked as if she had been pulling the top down. I think she had hold of the top somewhere.

CHIEF DARCY

Was recalled for the prosecution and asked if Hattie had told him that she knew where the body of Harlan was. To this an objection was interposed and sustained.

MR. BRADY

Testified: I was present on the 12th, when Hattie made the statement to Mr. Darcy. I had never seen her before. She was in the office about an hour, and when she came I was in the adjoining office. Mr. Darcy called me in to take a statement in writing. I took it down as she talked. (Identified the written statement.) Hattie was quiet when she made the statement. I heard no threats made or promises given to induce Hattie to make the statement, nor did I agree to favor her in any way if she would make any statement.

Cross-examined: Mr. Darcy called me in and I was there about an hour and heard no promises made.

Statement read to the effect that Hattie had become acquainted with Harlan through having her teeth filled. The last time she had been riding with him was October 4th, when they went to Whittier and to Compton; arrived in Los Angeles about 7 o'clock that evening. He walked home with her and that was the last she had seen of him until about 7 P. M, the next evening when he paid her a short call. He then looked as if troubled about something. She had not known he was a married man, nor did she believe he was then. When she worked for Mr. Bradley, he called on her and asked her to quit work. Afterwards, she received money from home and quit work. Some time after this, he promised to marry her, but the date was not set. The statement detailed an account of her travels from Peoria to Los Angeles, and was signed with witnesses name.

Continuing witness testified: Hattie did not say Harlan had been seen by her during the 6th. She said he called of his own account at 7 o'clock, and when he left he said he had business of importance, but he did not say what that business was. While she visited Mrs. Barbey's in June, Harlan called upon her once. The Doctor asked her to quit work and he would help her out but she gave no reason why he wanted her to. She said she finally quit work because she had money enough. She said she had about $200. I asked her if she had ever visited any private rooms with Dr. Harlan and she said she had not. She did not say with what means or money she left home, but she said her parents were in poor circumstances. About 7:30 that evening I had another conversation with Hattie. When she left that afternoon she went alone, but I was not far behind her. In the evening I saw her in her room at 514 Fort street. I asked her if she had a photograph of Dr. Harlan and she said no. Minnie commenced to cry and said it was a shame that the papers should have connected her with the story. Later Minnie went out and Hattie said that she did not believe Harlan was dead. A little later some one knocked at the door and she said she thought it was Harlan. She also said she did not believe he was married. I had another conversation with her on the afternoon of the 13th or 14th. I was alone with her. It was just before Hattie and Darcy went out for a buggy ride. She said she was going somewhere with Mr. Darcy. I saw them leave the office together. They drove up Second street and turned down Fort. I saw Hattie between 6 and 8 o'clock that evening. I went to Compton on the 11th of October and returned in the evening. Drs. Bird and Shinn and Judge Leonard were with me when the body was disinterred.

Cross examined: I wrote the statement in Hattie's presence.

Redirect examination: Hattie told me where she was going with Mr. Darcy when they started out riding. She said they were going out to dig up the stuff. She said she had told Mr. Darcy all about the matter.

OFFICER W. T. JEFFRIES.

testified that he knew Hattie Woolsteen. The first time I ever saw her to know her was on the 9th of October. The first time I talked to her was on the 14th of that month. She was then in the office of the Chief of Police and no one else was present. She talked about a ride she had had with Mr. Darcy. She also talked with witness before they went riding. She said they were going riding. She said they were going to get the watch and revolver that belonged to Dr. Harlan. They started about four o'clock that afternoon, and drove in the direction of Fort street. During that day she stated the condition the buggy curtain was left in. She said that there was blood on it. She tried to wash it off. She did not say how it was when she left it or what its condition was. After the first day of the examination she took chloroform. When she went downstairs she asked permission to go the closet. When she came out she made faces and looked as if there was something wrong. From that time she grew worse and I ran for the doctor.

Cross-examined: She was confined in prison to my knowledge from the 13th. I found the vial in the passage to the closet. I don't think she took the chloroform to get rid of the company. There were two doctors there. Instead of taking her to the County Jail we took her down through the center hall. She asked to go to the closet, and after she came out she looked as if she had taken something. When she laid down on the lounge I ran for the doctor. I did not see Minnie taken out of the room nor did I see her stripped. The Chief did not, to my knowledge, order her to be stripped. I was not ordered to strip her. She staid in the room an hour and a-half after Hattie took the poison. The first night her sister staid with her no one was specially charged with keeping her. At the time she tried to commit suicide there were a number of people in the room. When I got back with the doctor no one walked into the room and attempted to remove her garments. I saw no one put their hands on her person. No one dragged Minnie out of the room. I think it was an hour or an hour and a-half before Minnie went out. Some ladies were present. None were refused admittance, to my knowledge. No lady nurse was sent for nor did any nurse attend her. She was taken to the County Jail on Sunday evening and she took poison on Saturday evening.

Continued until this morning at 10 o'clock.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Verdict Regarding the San Fernando Wreck.

COMMERCIAL IMPROVEMENTS.

More About the Rattlesnake Island Project—Doings at the Depots.

On Sunday Michael Luna, the Mexican injured internally in the San Fernando disaster died at the Sisters' Hospital, so when the inquest was resumed in Coroner Meredith's office yesterday morning, his name was added to those of Westerfield and Brooks, who were killed outright at the time of the wreck.

Conductor O. A. Upson, who was in charge of the work train, was examined, and testified as follows: "We came out of the tunnel about 5 o'clock in the morning, and, while waiting for the men to unload the cars which stood on the main track, the engineer came to me and wanted to know whether we could not go back to San Fernando as soon as train No. 30, the Santa Barbara passenger, arrived. He said he would like to go ahead of No. 19, as he had been sick all day, and wanted to come to Los Angeles on No. 19 to get a man to come out on No. 20 to take charge of the work train. He said that we might as well go ahead of 19, and if we saw 24 coming we could come back to the tunnel. I told him all right, but to go slow, and when he got to the curves to stop and I would send a flagman out to the straight track. On the arrival of No. 30 we started. I was occupied in the caboose and the brakemen were both on the rear platform. We were backing up, and when I noticed we were right on the curve where I had told him to stop so that I could send a flagman around the curve to the straight track I started out on the rear platform to have the brakeman stop the train with the hand brakes. Just as I got to the door I saw 24, and I did not have time to speak before they struck. It is about a mile from the switch to where the accident happened. I think we were running about fifteen miles an hour. Westerfield should have only run within half a mile of the curve and then stopped until a flagman was sent over; it was his duty to stop. It is about three miles from San Fernando to where the accident happened. I did not hear any whistles blown; it is the duty of the engineer to blow a whistle at all curves and obscure places. There might have been a whistle blown and I not have heard it. I have always been in the habit of having all curves flagged. When I went inside of the car after starting for San Fernando I expected to be notified of the nearing of the curves by feeling the train slack up. When I stepped to the door of the car I went knowing that the train should stop and went to give orders to the brakeman to set up the brakes by hand and stop the train as it was down grade. I do not know that the brakeman knew that I told the engineer to stop at the curve.

At the conclusion of Upson's testimony the jury adjourned for dinner, and after the recess was over returned the following verdict after short deliberation:

"We find that Joseph A. Westerfield, a railroad engineer, a native of Kansas, aged 27; Harry Brooks, a fireman, a native of Ohio, 26, and Michael Luna, 34, a native of Mexico, came to their death through injuries received while in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company."

The jury held that O. A. Upson, conductor of the work train, and J. A. Westerfield, the engineer of same, were to blame for the accident and that it was due to their criminal carelessness.

RATTLESNAKE ISLAND.

Surveyors at Work There for the New Railroad.

The incorporation of the Long Beach and San Pedro Railroad on Saturday last has already been noted in these columns. It will be remembered that in the early part of the week it was announced that the Los Angeles and Ocean Beach road had secured right-of-way privileges through the town of Long Beach and to the western extremity of the Cerritos Ranch to a point, the nearest land communication, four hundred feet from Rattlesnake Island. It appears now that the incorporators of the Long Beach and San Pedro road are directly interested in the Ocean Beach line, and an investigation yesterday elicited the fact that the two roads will work in conjunction with each other. Surveyors yesterday were at work on Rattlesnake Island running the preliminary lines of the new road, which will extend the full length of the island. At the western extremity large wharves are to be constructed and this means an important move as regards railroading here. As the new line will enter Los Angeles over the Santa Fe's track from a point a mile distant from this city, it is hard to surmise who is at the back of the project, and although the air is full of rumors, nothing authentic can yet be established.

The Blockade Over.

As an evidence that the strike on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road is a matter of the past, the following telegram was received last evening by Mr. J. B. Quigley, representative of the company in this territory: "Limited train which commenced running yesterday passed Omaha for Chicago on time to-day; No. 1 west-bound also on time; this for your information that all trains are making schedule time."

The train alluded to is the fast limited, which was suspended from the time the strike went into operation until Sunday morning last.

Pomona to Elsinore.

The Pomona and Elsinore road on which work is being pushed at present, will be of great benefit to the lower country. It starts at Pomona and after making a straight line across the lower part of San Bernardino County, traverses a comparatively unknown part of San Diego County, opening up one of the best agricultural sections of the south. The line will ultimately run into San Diego and meet the Southern Pacific track again at Dos Palmos. As the road runs to Warner's ranch, it is predicted that the Elsinore Road will use the Cuyamaca's track to San Diego, and in exchange carry the Cuyamaca's cars from Warner's to Dos Palmos.

The Santa Monica Road.

Owing to the fact that Mr. A. J. Haley was called away from the city, nothing was done yesterday regarding the new road to Santa Monica, and it is probable that affairs will remain as they are until his return, as he is the prime worker in the project.

The Line to Colton.

J. C. Montieth, President of the San Bernardino Central Railroad, says that the road from Colton to San Bernardino will be completed within two months. Surveyors are at work mapping out the route, and work will be commenced at any early date.

General Gleanings.

M'lle. Rhéa left on the 10:20 A. M. train for Pomona yesterday.

Trains for the East were over an hour late yesterday owing to delayed Eastern connections.

Judge Brunson, attorney for the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road, has removed his office to rooms 1, 2, 3, 4, Baker Block.

A "Sunset" excursion from Boston is due here at 6 o'clock this morning. It is a special train consisting of five coaches and a baggage-car.

Erastus Young, auditor of the Union Pacific railway, with headquarters at Omaha, left last night with his family in a special car for San Diego.

Two passenger coaches for the Corondo Railroad went out for that place over the Southern Pacific yesterday. They are very handsome vehicles and magnificently equipped.

The well-known face of Mr. Charles Wright is again to be seen at the Southern Pacific ticket offices on Main street. He is greatly improved in health by his trip to San Francisco.

San Fernando parties have petitioned the Southern Pacific for a reduction of fare between that place and Los Angeles. The distance is 21 miles. They ask for a rate of 45 cents each way, or 85 cents for the round trip.

A Chinaman who left this city on No. 18 for San Francisco yesterday, died on the cars just before the train's arrival at South Side. His remains were returned to this city on No. 19 and Coroner Meredith notified to take charge of the proceedings.

Mr. Richard T. Davis, Division Freight Agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Road at Galesburg, Ill., is on a trip to this city. He is a brother-in-law of Judge Brunson and is that gentleman's guest during his stay here. His son-in-law is one of the five engineers who refused to go out with the rest of the Brotherhood in the strike on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy.

THE SUPERVISORS.

Several Important Matters Decided Yesterday.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday in regular session. Present: Supervisors Venable, Martin, Macy, Ross and Clerk.

In the absence of Supervisor Rowan, Supervisor Venable was appointed chairman. A warrant of $50 was ordered drawn in favor of Richard Dunnigan to pay for the county's share of the expense for an abstract of the lot purchased of D. G. Stewart. It was ordered that the instrument be placed in the custody of the Safe Deposit Company.

In the matter of the incorporation of Orange, the Board canvassed the election returns and found a majority of votes in favor of incorporation. On motion of Supervisor Ross, Orange was declared incorporated as a sixth class city. The following officers were declared elected: City Clerk, A. Cauldwell; City Marshal, Wm. Scott; City Treasurer, W. H. H. Clayton; Board of Trustees, O. P. Chubb, C. Z. Culver, H. F. Gardiner, P. J. Shaffer, Wm. Blasdale. The Clerk was instructed to send notice to the Secretary of the State.

On motion of Supervisor Ross $464.49 was ordered transferred from the Anaheim fund to the Westminster fund, and $54.80 from the Anaheim fund to the Garden Grove fund. The above changes were made on account of the erroneous credit on the assessment roll.

A communication was received from Hiram N. Rucker, Grand Master Mason, setting April 26th as the most convenient date for laying the corner stone of the County Court House. On motion of Supervisor Martin the matter was referred to the Worshipful Masters of the Masonic Lodges of the city, with power to act.

Supervisor Martin moved that suit be commenced against the Western Union Telegraph Company to recover $77.37 taxes due, provided said amount is not paid within 30 days. Carried.

Supervisor Martin's report of the San Fernando cut, regarding money paid out, was filed and a warrant for $75 ordered drawn to finish payment for work performed.

The hearing of the matter in regard to Colorado street was continued until May 9th.

In the matter of an additional Justice of the Peace, Messrs. H. S. Parcels, A. G. Mappa and C. C. Mason, were sworn and testified to the population of the City of Los Angeles, and it being shown that said city contained more than 20,000 inhabitants, and a petition of freeholders being presented, asking that A. J. King be appointed to fill said office, Supervisor Martin moved that the prayer of the petitioners be granted. Carried.

Deeds from A. Dorman and Mrs. H. S. Flora were received, accepted and ordered recorded, and the land described declared a public highway.

In the matter of a notary public for Whittier, the clerk was instructed to sign under seal the petition in behalf of the Board.

The Board established the boundaries of the judicial townships, road districts and supervisorial districts.

The Board consumed considerable time with John Gaffey and Mr. Sloss, of the State Board of Equalization, endeavoring to equalize the fees of the County Assessor.

M'lle Rhea's Banquet.

M'lle Rhea in speaking of the banquet tendered her on Friday night at Koster's Restaurant, said that she had never attended a collation which equaled it for excellence in the United States, or even in Europe. She was emphatic in her praises of the manner in which the viands were served as well as of their excellence, and said that the restaurant was one of which the citizens should be proud and should show their appreciation in every manner possible. She said she should ever bear the banquet in mind as one of the pleasantest hours she ever spent.

Illustrated Annual Herald.

The matter is now being prepared for this popular publication. The edition will be larger than ever before, and its columns will be filled with carefully prepared matter reflecting the progress and industry of Southern California. The illustrations will be more numerous than ever before, and in point of excellence the engraver's art will maintain the high reputation this publication has deservedly gained. Parties desirous of availing themselves of the advantages this special edition offers for advertising and write-ups, will do well to hand in their orders at as early a day as possible.

The Outlook.

Our local columns this morning contain a report of the proceedings had last night at the annual meeting of our Board of Trade. The important part of the matter is contained in the report of the outgoing President. This is a paper which will well repay careful perusal. The institution comes in the closest contact with all the material interests of Los Angeles in particular, and of the entire country generally. Its president is naturally intimately acquainted with all that goes on in the Board, and therefore is well qualified to speak of our industries and prospects with authority. Much weight attaches to the utterances of such an official, and in the present instance the outgivings of the report are in the main duly considered, conservative and deliberate.

It is very gratifying to note how cheerful, hopeful and confident are the views given by Mr. Germain. The record of the past year is very encouraging; the statement that the attorneys of the Board have had very little routine work to do, proves on how solid a basis the business of this community rests, and how carefully the great majority of our financial transactions have been considered by those entering into them. This fact, coupled with the other to which the report refers, to the effect that our dealings in real property last year was greater in absolute bulk than any county in the Union ever put on record, is a surprising combination. Wild speculation has not characterized to any great extent even this class of business. The fact is, far-seeing men have come in here with a great deal of money. They see how dense a population our matchless climate will draw here, how rich our soil is, how large the profits of cultivating the same must prove, the admirable situation of this city as a center of business; and acting on these views such people have been in some hurry to possess themselves of as much of our lands as their means could reach. But these people have made no mistakes; they have not as a rule covered more area than they can hold until purchasers are found for every acre and every lot in this section. The views expressed by the President of the Board of Trade, are reached by every intelligent man in the city, whose direct connection with realty enables him to speak as the facts are. There is a most unanimous expression of opinion, that while there is no feverish excitement in real estate circles, yet there is a feeling of great confidence on the part of holders—a feeling which can rest on only one ground, that they are able to hold it. At the same time there is an interested and lively inquiry for good property on the part of a large number of recent arrivals in this section, who have come to settle and wish to buy their homes. In many cases these people are slow to invest, and their hesitation arises not from any misgivings about the value of our property, but because they are filled with an idea that some holders are overloaded and must let go. As week follows week and no sagging in the market developes, these prudent people are reconstructing their views, and begin to see that nothing has been gained, while something has been lost, by their delay.

And this leads to still another wise line of comment found in the report of Mr. Germain. He calls attention to the wide extent of our agricultural lands, to their matchless fertility, the unparalleled variety of their products, and the good prices always obtainable for these in a home market where all we grow is consumed. There is not a shadow of doubt that a person who secures five or ten acres of our land and makes a home on it will bless the day he took so wise a step.

PRESIDENT GERMAIN, of the Board of of Trade, in his annual report, advises the adoption of the proposed city charter, because it is an improvement upon the existing one. He admits that it is imperfect and marred by serious errors, yet he thinks it better to adopt it, with all its faults, than to continue under the present one. Mr. Germain's logic would be understandable if we were confronted with the alternative that unless we adopt the new charter we must continue to exist under the old one. This is far from being the case. We have ample time to get up another charter before the Legislature meets. That being a fact beyond dispute, why should we handicap our city with a charter which he admits is defective? Should we adopt this defective charter, it will be no easy matter to amend it. The amendments will first have to be submitted to popular vote by the Council when it will require three-fifths of the votes cast at that election to ratify them. Then these amendments must come before the Legislature, so that it will take at least four years to cure the evils which we can just as well do at once. In the meantime, should Mr. Germain's advice be followed, it will be impossible for our city to have a Board of Health whose acts will stand before the courts, and we will have fastened upon ourselves a centralized and dangerous power, which can only be broken by the consent of the power that will be interested in maintaining this centralization. We submit that it would be unwise, if not suicidal for the people to endorse an instrument that is radically faulty and fraught with dangerous innovations, on the plea that it is better than the one we now exist under, when we have plenty of time to frame and adopt one that will be cured of the palpable defects which characterize the charter now submitted for our rejection or ratification. The people will require better reasons than those advanced by the President of the Board of Trade to induce them to vote for a dangerous and defective charter.

THE retiring President of the Board of Trade calls attention to the great development going on hereabouts in the line of building. A few years ago this fact was more apparent than today, although the actual work being done then was not a tithe of what it is now. The construction of residences is being prosecuted with as much vigor as at any moment in the last five years. Indeed, the absolute number of buildings in course of erection is in ever-increasing ratio, and that, too, of the geometrical order. But this line of improvement now stretches over a vast area, embracing not merely to the very border of the city in all directions, but also overlapping these boundaries, extends far beyond into the outlying territory. So with business blocks of all styles and dimensions. Five years ago the new buildings were all put up in the very center of the city, and they claimed attention at all times. Now these enterprises reach from the eastern end of Downey Avenue to Washington Gardens, a distance of four miles; and from the car stables on Boyle Heights to the engine House on Temple street, almost equal in extent. Great brick blocks, and fine stone structures for business uses are now going up on a dozen streets. Time was when a $100,000 block was spoken of for weeks by every paper in the city. Many of the buildings now being put up will cost $50,000, $100,000 and $150,000, but these attract very little attention. Our affairs were never on a more solid basis.

WORK on the great hotel at Tenth street is making good progress. The area of 100,000 square feet as now excavated makes a big hole in the ground. The big walls, three feet thick at weakest points, are now being rapidly laid up, the foundations being underlaid by a heavy bed of cement and broken stones. Nearly one hundred men are employed on the work, and more will be added as material can be procured in larger volume. The timbers are all cut at the mills at Puget Sound in right lengths so to fit right into the hotel without further trouble. A spur track has been run up from the main line, and the material is all delivered direct to the point of application. A mill has been set up on the ground to do the milling and surfacing for the building. It is to contain 650 sleeping rooms, and in every detail and appointment this will be the perfect equal of any hotel in the world. Its importance to Los Angeles is second to no enterprise yet started. To have anything interfere with the accomplishment of the big design would be a severe blow to the general prosperity of the city. And, by the way, the President of the Board of Trade urges the carrying out of the sewer system of the city. Here is where the first work in this direction should be done. The Main street sewer should be carried on from where it was stopped at Ninth street to the outfall sewer south of the city. This is necessary to the hotel scheme.

IN NOTHING is the delightful character of our climate better illustrated than in the facts connected with our seaside resorts. It is now only the beginning of April, yet Sunday after Sunday hundreds and thousands of people visit the beach at one point or other. Last Sunday not less than 600 people visited Redondo Beach, a new resort by the seaside. Many others found their way into the old and beaten paths which lead to Santa Monica and Long Beach. And here is another fact regarding our section worthy of note. We are not forced to make long and tedious pilgrimages in order to reach the sad sea waves, nor are we forced to crowd all in one direction. We have half a dozen resorts of the most charming sort. Santa Catalina Island is a spot whose equal is scarcely to be found on the globe. Those who visited the new resort at Redondo Beach speak of the place in the most flattering terms. The gentle slope of the ground, the broad beach, the fine bathing opportunities, will make it a favorite with those who seek a whiff of fresh air now and then, together with relaxation from business.

THE financial institutions of this city are certainly in a most flourishing condition. For the three months ending March 31st, and constituting the first quarter of the current year, the clearances of the nine regular banking institutions of Los Angeles aggregated $34,217,653.22. Despite the fact that several new banks opened their doors during the year 1887, and that these all show a very fair degree of prosperity, yet the older banks all develop a large increase in their business as shown by the clearances.

WORK on the great cable road system of Los Angeles begins to-day. First blood will be drawn on Boyle Heights. There are six thousand "yokes" on hand, hundreds of tons of rails and many thousands of barrels of cement. The system is to cost $1,500,000.

Miss Short's Play Scores a Brilliant Success.

As had been predicted there was not a vacant seat in the Opera House last night at the performance of Miss Mamie Short's Comedy—drama, A Dull Evening, by the members of the Oxymel Club. That it was a success was evidenced by the liberal applause bestowed upon it by an audience composed chiefly of habitual theater-goers, and the young authoress must have felt a thrill of pride as she witnessed its reception. The performers proved how well they had been trained by the able manner in which they rendered their parts and the stage setting and management redounded with great credit to Miss Foy who has had full charge of the proceedings. The costumes worn by "the girls," Misses Greenwood and Fellows were very handsome, and the scenery was enhanced by liberal contributions from Messrs. Walton & Wachtel, and the Kan Koo emporium. Owing to a pressure on the local columns this morning it is impossible to give the performers individual notices, and the general statement must suffice that "each one played in a most commendable manner, and fully deserved the hearty applause with which their efforts were received."

Associated Charities.

A mass reunion of friends of charity will be held this evening in the First Presbyterian Church, corner Fort and Second streets, under the auspices of the Associated Charities of Los Angeles. Mayor Workman will preside, and Lieut.-Gov. Stephen M. White, Revs. Chichester, Cantine, Fay, Hutchings, Birdsall, Schreiber, Col. J. J. Ayers and others will deliver five-minute addresses. The music will be executed by Mrs. Mamie Perry-Davis, Miss Florence Perry, Mesdames Beeson, Book, Scarboro, Valentine, and Messrs. Wilde, Hawthorne, Hayes and a male quartette. All are invited.

Miss Kate Field.

On Thursday evening Miss Kate Field will lecture on Mormonism at the Grand Opera House. Of this lecture the Albany Express speaks as follows: "There is probably no woman on the platform who has the power to draw so cultivated and brilliant an audience as has Miss Kate Field. Hers is a very remarkable presentation of the national problem, graphic in detail, forcible in eloquence, a grand plea for the integrity of our common country."

The Campobello Concert.

To-night the Campobello Concert Company will appear at the Grand Opera House. A grand musical festival is promised, and as the members of the company are all of world-wide reputation, the entertainment will doubtless be a most acceptable one. The engagement here is a limited one, closing with the performance to-morrow night.

A Recital.

On Saturday night at the Grand Opera House Miss Lizzie Richardson will give a lyric and Shakespearian recital, in which she will appear in costume. It is expected that she will draw a large house.

Annie Pixley.

Annie Pixley will appear at the Grand Opera House next week, commencing with Monday night. She will play the Deacon's Daughter, the Charity Girl and M'liss.

A Gorgeous Prize.

A generous lady of this city, who has taken a deep interest in the erection of the proposed Catholic church at Wilmington, has presented to the funds of the church a beautiful and valuable diamond ring, which they have set up at raffle, 200 ticket at $2 each. Tickets can be had at the well-known jewelers, Quarré & Martin, 211 Spring street. A large number of them have already been sold, and those who wish to help along a good cause and at the same time take their chances of becoming possessed of a four-hundred-dollar, jewel should get their tickets at once.

COOKS AND WAITERS.

Resolutions Adopted at their Last Meeting.

At a meeting of the cooks and waiters Sunday evening the following resolutions were unanimousiy adopted:

WHEREAS, The Democratic State Convention is to be held in this city on the 15th of May; and

WHEREAS, The Democratic party claims to be the champion of the people, and to be utterly opposed to Chinese interests in every respect; and

WHEREAS, The Chinese question is the only one that workingmen are particularly interested in on this coast; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby call the attention of the delegates to the said convention and the public generally to the fact that more than one-half of the hotels and restaurants in this city employ Chinese cooks and servants to the exclusion of the white race; and be it

Resolved, That, as voters, we have the right to request that delegates and other Democratic representatives patronize only such hotels and restaurants as employ American help only; and be it

Resolved, That we hereby appeal to every Democratic editor and to every Democratic Club in the State to help us in this matter, and thereby furnish employment to a class of men as honest and industrious as any in the land, many of whom have spent their best days in the hotel and restaurant business as cooks and otherwise.

Political Meeting.

Pursuant to a call, several gentlemen of color met last evening at the Rev. Jordan Allen's church to discuss politics. The meeting was called to order by the Rev. R. C. O. Benjamin, who, after an explanatory speech, stated that the object of the meeting was to send delegates to the Ohicago Convention, and asked that the meeting be secret. Mr. Martin was then elected Chairman and Mr. Jones Secretary. It was then decided that all who felt desirous could express their ideas. Some of these were of such an objectionable nature that two-thirds of those present left before the meeting was over. The meeting finally adjourned, subject to the call of the chair.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Annual Address By The President.

THE ELECTION POSTPONED.

The Matter of Voting by Proxies Discussed at Length—Other Business.

The Los Angeles Board of Trade met at the new quarters, corner First and Fort streets, last night, this being the regular annual meeting for the election of officers. President Germain, after calling the meeting to order, announced that after roll call, at which members in person and by proxy were expected to answer, the Board would proceed to the election of six new directors for the ensuing year. One hundred and ten members answered to roll call. After reading and approving the minutes of the previous annual meeting, President Germain read the following most excellent and interesting report.

PRESIDENT GERMAIN'S REPORT.

To the Members of the Los Angeles Board of Trade.

GENTLEMEN: Another year, our fifth has passed, and again you meet in annual convention to listen to the reports of your officers. A year ago I had the honor of being elected your president, and I have, as far as in me lay, endeavored to perform the duties devolving upon me. Whether I have succeeded in accomplishing what was expected of me, I leave you to judge. I will briefly note the condition of our local affairs and the workings of the Board of Trade for the past year, and call your attention to matters demanding future consideration.

The progress of our city in the past twelve months has been something phenomenal. In population, in building, in commerce, and in all public and private improvements, our advancement is everywhere noticeable. Such rapid growth involves a heavy responsibility upon the municipal government, and the time and resources of our officials have been taxed to the utmost. In such a condition of affairs it is a great pleasure to note that the chief office, that of Mayor, is occupied by a man who in his own personality represents the character and purposes of the Board of Trade. Energetic and progressive, he has rendered the city good service, and his persistent efforts to secure needed public improvements should meet with success, and are well worthy of recognition.

The Council is making strenuous efforts to solve the problems thrust upon it by our city's growth, and with the hope of enlisting for them the co-operation of our business community, I desire to call attention to a few of these problems.

First in importance may be mentioned the question of street paving. The filthy condition of our thoroughfares has undoubtedly worked largely to our disadvantage. The usual comment of visitors has been that such a state of affairs would be a disgrace to a country village. If we are to have relief before another winter, the work of paving must be pushed with all possible speed, as a large area must be covered to meet the demands of business.

Then our sewerage system must be improved without delay. Our lovely climate cannot forever overcome, and ocean breezes cannot disinfect or carry away the dangers arising from the defective sewerage system of a closely built city. We have been fortunate in our comparative freedom from epidemic diseases, but must not expect to continue so, unless we make provision that reason and experience dictate.

Another matter calling for the speedy action of both the Council and Board of Education, is the present lack of adequate room in our public schools. This has been largely due to the uncertainty as to the validity of the proposed issue of bonds. One of our leading citizens is putting this problem in the way of a speedy solution, and I trust he may meet with every encouragement in his laudable purpose. It may be that further legislation is required to meet the necessity in our case. In that event no question deserves more careful consideration by the Board than the requirements of our public schools; no efforts should be spared to secure such legislation as will enable Los Angeles to possess school buildings and accommodations as creditable to her as the teachers now in her schools are.

There are many other important matters connected with municipal affairs; but no city worthy of the name can dispense with clean, well-paved streets, thorough sewerage, and ample facilities for the education of the youth.

Another matter which should engage the attention of our Council, and enlist the co-operation of this Board, is the suppression of vicious resorts, which are maintained in many instances on our business and residence streets. Houses of prostitution should be driven out of view, and the corrupt resorts shut up. I am in favor of the present ordinance fixing the liquor dealer's license at $600 per annum; but I would suggest that said license be made payable yearly in advance, so as to make it impossible for unprincipled men to make a livelihood out of the earnings of the poorer classes, and thus rid our city of a class of people whose place should be at work supporting their families, who in many instances are now neglected.

The lighting of this city also requires further action. Our electric lights are good so far as they go, but they should be increased in number.

The proposed new charter, a matter of great moment to our municipality, will shortly be submitted to the votes of our citizens. This charter should be carefully studied by each member of the Board, that he may be prepared to cast an intelligent vote. While not presuming to speak for the Board, I may briefly say that, in my individual judgment, the interests of the city will be best promoted by its adoption; and that, while like every other work of human hands, it has its imperfections, it is superior to the one by which we are now governed; it is intended to, and, doubtless will, correct many abuses which have grown up under the present charter. I would suggest that the expression of opinion on the part of this representative body of business men, would have great weight with a large number of our voting population.

Belonging to the administration of the county, and affecting the interests of the city, are two important matters—the Judiciary and Court House. The last Legislature allowed two additional Superior Judges for this county; but the relief it has afforded appears to be only temporary. Business interests of the community are prejudiced by delays which are unavoidable when the courts are overburdened with work; and steps should be taken in ample season to bring some measure for further relief before the Legislature, early in its next session.

In regard to the Court House, I desire to express the gratification felt by all classes in knowing that operations have been actually commenced, and that Los Angeles county at last bids fair to have a building which will be a credit to it, adequate to the demands of the public business and calculated to afford protection to our public records. Its early completion is a necessity, and while public improvements and business have been impeded by the rush of our progress, private enterprises have accommodated themselves to the situation.

The year just past has been a prosperous one, not only for this locality, but for the entire Pacific coast. The failures have been few, and profits fair; and we can only hope that the year just beginning will prove a repetition of the one ended. Our merchants, however, should not guide themselves by success, but should use great care and judgment in granting credits, thus avoiding losses to themselves and embarrassment to their debtors. The business of the country is in a healthy condition and it depends a great deal upon our wholesale trade to keep it so.

The area of country brought under cultivation has been largely in excess of any previous year. I learn from authentic sources that over seventy-five per cent. of our land of all descriptions has been plowed up, new orchards set out, grain sown in enormous quantities; and, to crown the whole, our rainfall has been plentiful. There are, therefore, no clouds on the horizon to cause apprehension, and we can look forward to a prosperous season. I would caution our people, however, to be careful and not kill the goose that lays the golden egg by cutting up too much land into small town lots and holding acreage property at too high a figure. We cannot have permanent prosperity merely from a few rich men coming here to build homes, without producing anything. We must make strenuous efforts to induce also the immigration of a class of farming people who will till our soil and bring forth by the sweat of their brow that which is needed for self-support. We must have them produce, not only what is needed for home consumption, but a surplus that will bring in gold coin, and put the balance of trade in our favor. It has been my impression for years that the prosperity of this country is not entirely due to its climatic advantages, but mainly to its valuable productions. People of small means have found that not only could they regain their shattered health in our beautiful country; but also make a livelihood for themselves and families. They have, and will come, and form a desirable addition to our community. We must not run away with the idea that buying and selling our lots and acreage property at large figures will promote our welfare; but we must remember that as our population increases we have to produce more; not only to raise what we consume, but a surplus to send abroad. It is not to our credit to send away thousands, and even millions of dollars, as we have done, and still are doing, to bring in butter, eggs, potatoes, onions, and many other commodities, which we can bring forth from our productive soil, keeping our wealth here, instead of sending it away.

The banks of our city have increased in number, and both new and old have accumulated resources by transacting a large volume of business. Los Angeles is well represented by our banking institutions, of which she has good reason to be proud. The establisment of a Clearing House during the past year has filled a long felt want, and was attained through the efforts of the Committee on Trade, Commerce and Banking of this Board of Trade.

The press of this city has during the past year, as heretofore, done good work for this section, and no one begrudges it its share of general prosperity. Some of the papers have labored during years of adversity for the benefit of Southern California, and these have now the consciousness of a duty well performed.

The railroads have taken an active part in the recent advancement. In every direction the iron horse is beating new paths, and it is a poor day which does not bring the report of some additional road which is building, or proposing to build in this direction. The railroads we have are like our City Council, overwhelmed with work, incident to the rapid growth of this section. Every possible effort for efficient service has been made by the officials of both companies, and between them and our merchants a general feeling of friendliness exists.

Some charitable ladies of this city have undertaken the establishment of a free kindergarten, for the benefit of poor, homeless children; and I hope they will meet with all the encouragement and success they deserve. Should they call upon our citizens for material help, I hope that every one will do the utmost to help them carry out their purpose.

One of the drawbacks to Los Angeles has been its lack of adequate hotel accommodation. This lack has been partially met recently by new hotels; and the prospect is that before long, we shall be prepared to welcome all comers with more extensive hotel accommodations than are boasted of in any commercial city of twice its size in the United States. It cannot be expected that visitors will continue to come of they are warned off by reports of insufficient accommodation, and consequent high prices. This matter of high prices charged by hotel and boarding houses has been an evil—one, in part, depending upon another evil, which bids fair to be eradicated, that is high rents. The heavy, and in many instances, exorbitant rents which have been asked by landlords, have driven some out of business, deterred others from engaging in it, and sent many families away who could not afford to live in this city. The unprecedented activity in building operations is, however, bringing the supply more nearly up to the demand, and the relief which is already being felt, will doubtless soon be still more evident. This relief would have been sooner afforded, had it not been for the insufficient supply and excessively high price of building material, especially lumber. This has been, and continues to be a serious question, and one deserving of your consideration. If by any proper means the prevailing high prices for building material can be reduced to a more reasonable basis, one more nearly approaching the rates charged elsewhere, I am convinced we shall see building commenced on a scale heretofore not dreamed of. Beautiful homes will be erected in every direction, and men of moderate means, freed from high rents, will not only make a living, but become prosperous, and consequently more contented. The building of homes has been encouraged and facilitated by the formation of building associations, and to the directors of these organizations great credit is due for the public spirit and sound judgment displayed by them.

While our manufacturing interests have made considerable progress, they are as yet far from being as extensive as desirable. There are, as already mentioned, many commodities which Southern California should not be compelled to purchase abroad; and the rapidly growing output of crude petroleum at our very doors furnishes a cheap fuel, which should be more generally utilized in the building up of home manufactures, which would settle the question that has heretofore prevented the establishment of manufactories in this county.

In no branch of business has activity been so noticable as in real estate. The transfers have exceeded in number and aggregate consideration, those of any other county on the American continent. Fortunes have been made, and so attractive has this form of investment become, that some classes of property have been pushed on the market in advance of any legitimate demand. Still worse, the "boom" has been taken advantage of by a few unprincipled adventurers, to work off on unsuspecting and credulous people, lots in paper towns, located on inaccessible mountains and barren deserts. While people who are taken in by these shames are guilty of extreme negligence, such frauds work an injury to all legitimate business, and I would recommend that this Board take steps to furnish reliable information relative to any property placed upon the market elsewhere, and then publish extensively its readiness and willingness to do so. Such a course would, I am satisfied, to a great extent, prevent and break up fraudulent business.

The establishment of the Free Bureau of Information by Mr R. R. Haines, under the auspices of this Board of Trade, will in a great measure help us in this matter; for in the few months of its existence it has proven a success and of immense benefit to this community and to the many strangers asking for information. The Board should continue to give it all the help and encouragement possible.

To the Board of Supervisors of this county our Board is indebted for the courtesy extended in setting aside part of the amount appropriated to encourage immigration. They granted us $100 per month, to be devoted to the maintenance of the Free Bureau of Information, which without this substantial aid could not have been a success.

While the real estate market now lacks some of the excitement which marked it a few months ago, it is still active, a fact sufficiently demonstrated by the number of transfers filed for record during the past few months, largely in excess of those for the corresponding months of 1887.

Among the many things upon which the members of this Board have reason to congratulate themselves in the last year's happenings is the establishment near our city of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. To our natural advantages and the persistent efforts of this Board of Trade, to the strenuous labors of S. B. Lewis, Esq., and our late lamented Secretary, A. M. Lawrence, and also to the liberality of our public-spirited citizens, is due this great gain. Not only is it a National recognition of our climatic advantages, but it promises great direct, and indirect material profits to this section.

During the past few months, many Eastern papers have given currency to attacks upon this country; denying its mild climate, the fertility of its soil, and its general prosperity; asserting a present collapse, or predicting one in the near future. One has not far to look for the cause of these attacks; the stream of desirable immigration, and the accompanying wealth, which has been flowing away from them to us, has created a drain which has been severely felt by many Eastern cities. Newspapers have been called upon to check this outgo, and have endeavored to do so regardless of facts. While we have many things deserving of criticism, which must be the case in any rapidly growing place, we must object to these exaggerations and falsehoods. Some papers with a manliness worthy of praise, have endeavored to do us justice, acknowledging our advantages and resources, while criticising our shortcomings. I believe the climax has been reached in these injurious misrepresentations, and that reaction will follow from which we shall reap great benefit. To hasten this desirable consummation I request all members of this Board to try to reach their eastern friends, especially through the medium of the eastern press, with correct statements of the condition and prospects of this section.

Our Board has been prosperous, and has gained sixteen new members, which, while not a large number, nevertheless, goes to show that our people appreciate our labors and are anxious to join our ranks. We have lost by death two good members; one, J. W. Bixby, Esq., who, while he did not take active part in the workings of this Board, was a good citizen, one who was ever ready to lend a helping hand for the promotion of public interests, and did a great deal towards making Los Angeles county the banner county of this great state. The second one I refer to with a feeling of deepest sadness, having to record the loss sustained by this community, and particularly by this Board, in the death of its Secretary, A. M. Lawrence, which took place on the 7th ult. To him the Board was in a great measure indebted for the successful issue of its undertakings. It is unnecessary for me to recount to you his eminent fitness for the position which he held, and his faithful services which only ended with his life. It is sufficient for me to voice the general sentiments expressed by you, that no similar organization ever possessed a better executive officer. His standing here was but a sample of the estimation in which he was held elsewhere. A man of the highest character, of wide information, of unpretentious manners, of accurate business habits, and of unvarying courtesy and kindness, he was esteemed and loved by all classes, and will be remembered long after oblivion has hidden the memory of many a man who claimed a large share of public attention. May he ever rest in peace.

The Trustees elected by the Board of Trade and Produce Exchange to purchase a site for the erection of a suitable building went to work in earnest. The result of their labors must be apparent to all. They did not go into the original plan to erect a new building, but preferred remodelling the old one, getting sufficient income to pay interest on bonds sold, and accumulate a surplus to be used in the erection of a large and commodious structure in the near future. Being one of the trustees, I will dwell but little on the subject, but would ask the members of this Board to come forward more liberally, thus making the task of the trustees a lighter one. They have yet to raise considerable money to pay for the property, and it depends greatly upon you to hasten the undertaking to a successful issue.

To the directors of this Board, I would tender my sincere thanks for the hearty co-operation and support they have given me during my term of office. They have responded at all times promptly to my calls for regular or special meetings, and I sincerely hope that each of them may meet with the success in life they so well deserve.

Our cash balance is not as large as it was at the same time last year; but the money we have expended has been invested judiciously, and for the interest of this Board.

I would like to call the attention of this Board to the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in this city on September 11th, next. This body will be composed, as every one knows, of many of the most prominent men of the United States, and with them will come at least ten thousand people to visit our city. It is therefore important that we all put our shoulder to the wheel, and receive them in a proper manner. The city should be robed in holiday attire, and during said session all citizens should make it their duty to vie with each other in their attention to our visitors. We must see that every one is properly housed, well entertained, and not overcharged. It will in my estimation do more to advertise this city and country than any other mode we can resort to, and thus by proper management bring forth golden fruit. The Executive Committee appointed by the several lodges of this city, both on finance and arrangements, will shortly call upon our citizens, and I hope and expect that they will meet with a hearty co-operation, and be successful in their undertaking.

Our attorneys have rendered this Board good service, and while the failures have been few, and their labors less than in the year previous, they have nevertheless rendered to each member material services, and have ever been ready to respond to any professional call by this Board. Our new Secretary has taken hold of his duties in good shape, and I have no doubt but that he will prove the right man in the right place. Our Assistant Secretary, Gregory Perkins, has improved wonderfully in the past year. He has been industrious and attentive to the business of this Board; and during our late Secretary's illness performed the duties of both Secretary and Assistant Secretary in a creditable manner. I hope the incoming Board will appoint him, and increase his salary; and whatever he may undertake in life, I sincerely trust will prove successful.

Many of our members are in arrears for dues, and I would ask these to pay up, as our treasury needs replenishing. Our by-laws should be so amended as to prevent any member voting at an election when over six months in arrears.

Since the establishment of the Los Angeles Board of Trade good work has been performed by it and its officers. Almost every small city in the State has established an association and called it a Board of Trade. Their aims and purposes are quite different from ours; they are not commercial institutions, but simply immigration bureaus; will they have seen fit to call their institutions Boards of Trade. I therefore would suggest that the name of ours be changed, and that it be called the Los Angeles Merchants' Exchange; this would I think give this Board a name adequate to the prominence it deserves.

In conclusion I desire to congratulate the Board upon its flourishing and growing influence, and the flattering prospects for the continued prosperity of our section; and to express the sincere hope that you may each experience increased success during the year we enter upon.

EUGENE GERMAIN,
President.

Secretary T. H. Ward read a report showing the financial status of the Board. The total disbursements for the year were $5,495 13. The receipts were as follows: Dues $3,702.00, membership fees $600, rents $99.50, attorney and board fees $837.16, returned advance money $166.15, interest $79.32, commission $11.00, amount in bank $1,804.86.

The Treasurer reported a balance on hand of $286.57.

The attorneys for the Board, Messrs. Graves and O'Melveney, represented by J. A. Graves, presented a report showing the number of suits brought in the Superior Court to be 27, in Justice Courts 5, total 31; number of attachments 19, insolvency cases 7, assignments for benefit of creditors 5. The different reports were ordered filed and referred to the Finance Committee.

Col. H. G. Ottis offered a report of the committee appointed at the last annual meeting to revise the by-laws. The report recommended the abolishing of the system of voting by proxy.

Atty. J. A. Graves stated that for one he wished to be understood as opposed to the proxy system.

Gen'l Mathews thought after canvassing the matter thoroughly that members were dilatory for the simple reason they could vote by proxy.

On motion the report was referred back to the committee with instructions to amend it to conform to the statute, it appearing that the change sought for—that of abolishing the proxy system of voting—could not be legally effected without giving twenty days notice of such change.

Col. Ottis moved that the election be postponed for thirty days, stating that Mr. Graves, Attorney for the Board, had promised to confer with the committee and properly revise the proposed amended by-laws. Carried.

An adjournment until Wednesday, May the 9th, was declared.

SEGRO KNOCKED SENSELESS.

Santa Rosa's Rough Sunday Excursionists.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., April 9.—Public indignition is aroused at the conduct of Sunday excursionists to this place. Respectable citizens are insulted on the streets, and it is not safe for ladies or children to leave their houses. Mr. Segro was knocked senseless yesterday during a fight arranged in order to give an opportunity to pickpockets to ply their vocation. Three citizens were relieved of their watches, and considerable money was stolen by people in the crowd. Some of the female portion of the excursionists are no better than their male companions. Fifteen special policemen are to be appointed next Sunday.

POPE TO PRESIDENT.

The Jubilee Gift of the Constitution.

BALTIMORE, April 9.—A special to the Sun from Washington says:—Pope Leo has sent a letter to President Cleveland, thanking him for the jubilee present of a copy of the Constitution. The communication was handed the President by Cardinal Gibbons. The Pope speaks of the great distinction of receiving from the ruler of a free people a gift which he had never expected to be sent him, and expressed his appreciation of the appropriateness of the present. The Pope wishes us peace and prosperity, and prays for the American people and the country's perpetuation and of the institutions of liberty.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Eulogistic Comments on the Late Chief Justice.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the Supreme Court to-day Attorney-General Garland presented a resolution recently adopted by the bar and officers of the court, respecting the late Chief Justice Waite, and spoke at some length in eulogy of the deceased. Justice Miller, in receiving the resolutions, also paid an eloquent tribute to the late Chief Justice, and said: "We fully appreciate the great loss which this country, the bar and the officers of this court have sustained by this sad event. The blow falls, however, with more force upon the members of this court, who associated with him in the performance of its functions, and have been accustomed to the benefit of his learning and of his ability in the discharge of the duties common to us all; for not only has he guided our pathway and lightened our labors by his experience his skill and his practical tact, but with an urbanity and kindliness of heart rarely if ever excelled, he has won our affections and attached us to himself, so that while we sympathise in the public loss, each also feels the sorrow of separation from a special friend." Justice Miller then announced that the court will cease to hear arguments on May 4th, and would adjourn for the term on May 14th.

A FRESNO LAND CASE.

A decision was rendered in the United States Supreme Court to-day in the case of Frank E. Dewolf, Isabella Cole, Dewolf and Horace M. Barnes, appellants, vs. Florence M. Hayes. The action involves five and a-half sections of land in Fresno county. The Supreme Court reverses the decision of the Circuit Court of California, from which it was appealed, and remands the suit with direction that it be dismissed.

OLEOMARGARINE.

The Keystone State Law Thereon Sustained.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Supreme Court of the United States to-day rendered an opinion in case number 814 of William L. Powell, plaintiff in error, vs. the Commonwealth in Pennsylvania, commonly known as the Oleomargarine Case. It was brought up for revision on a judgment of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania sustaining the validity of a statute of that Commonwealth, making it unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, or offer for sale, any butter or cheese or article designed to take the place of these articles produced from any compound other than unadulterated milk or cream. The plaintiff was convicted of a violation of this statute, and took an appeal, basing it on the ground that the statute was in violation of the 14th amendment to the Constitution, and that the article was a new invention, not deleterious to public health. The Court holds that it is entirely within the police powers of the State to protect the public health, and that the questions whether the manufacture of oleomargarine is or may be conducted in such a way as to involve such danger to the public health as to require the suppression of the business, rather than its regulation, are questions of fact and of public policy which belong to the Legislative department to determine. If all that can be said of this legislation is that it is unwise, unnecessary or oppressive, the appeal is to the Legislature, or the ballot box, and not the Judiciary. The Court also says it cannot assent to the argument that if this statute is sustained then nothing stands in the way of the destruction by the Legislative Department of the Constitutional guarantees of liberty and property. The answer to this argument it holds is that the Judiciary Department is bound not to give effect to statutory enactments that are plainly forbidden by the Constitution. The objection that the statute denies the equal protection of the laws, is also held to be untenable, for the reason that the same penalties and burdens that are imposed upon all persons engaged in the same business. Judgment is affirmed. Opinion by Justice Harlan, Justice Field dissenting.

THE TELEPHONE MONOPOLY.

The case of the United States vs. the Bell Telephone Company was advanced on the docket and set for hearing on the second day of next term. This is the case brought against the Bell Telephone in Ohio by Attorney-General Garland, and which excited so much interest throughout the country.

FRUIT GROWERS.

They Open the Convention at Santa Barbara.

SANTA BARBARA, April 9.—The 9th Convention of Fruit Growers of California, under the direction of the State Board of Horticulture, met this afternoon. Elwood Cooper was elected President, Edward Iveson and H. C. Ford Vice-Presidents, B. W. Jeltong Secretary, A. E. Putnam Assistant Secretary. President Cooper delivered the opening address, commenting on the formation of the Fruit Union to handle and market fruits, and spoke of the necessity of taking action for the extermination of insects, called attention to the Mills' Tariff bill, recommended the convention to protest against any changes in the tariff so far as it affects fruit production in California. An address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Russell Heath of Carpenteria. A letter was read from the Sutter County Horticultural Society asking that the next convention be held in Marysville. An essay on "The Culture of the English Walnut" was read by Joseph Sexton, of Goleta. After this was discussed the convention adjourned till to-morrow.

WICKED WADLEIGH.

Nearly Shot While Serving a Term for Crime.

SACRAMENTO, April 9.—A special to the Bee, from Folsom, says: A young man named W. R. Tolley, from Oakland, came here on an early train this morning and asked to see a convict, Charles Wadleigh, serving a five years' sentence, from San Francisco, for felony. Warder Aull refused to allow Tolley to see Wadleigh, as the former seemed considerably agitated, and claimed that Wadleigh had alienated his wife from him. Several visitors were at the prison, and while the line of convicts was going to dinner from the quarry and passing in at the gate, Tolley suddenly drew a pistol and fired, striking a convict named Raphael Videll in the shoulder. Tolley was placed under arrest and turned over to the constable of Folsom. Tolley did not know Wadleigh and mistook Videll for him. A charge of assault to murder was placed against Tolley by Warden Aull. Videll has a painful but not dangerous wound. Four shots were fired. Wadleigh is serving a five years' sentence for seducing a girl whom Tolley a few months ago married, not knowing of her relations with Wadleigh.

MEXICAN LANDS.

Large Bodies Put on the Market for Sale.

NOGALES, Ariz., April 9.—John A. Krause, manager of the Sonora Land Company at Nogales, Ariz., received possession and deed to 2,000,000 acres of land in the Montezuma, Arispe and Tahuaripa districts, Sonora, in concession for a contract to survey public lands in said State. The Mexican Government by the survey have defined 12,000,000 acres of land, heretofore unavailable, owning to clashing interests and private possessions. Since the survey Carlos Pacheco, Minister of Public Works, has sold the adjoining Sonora Land Company's land, three large tracts, to the Schnetz Colonization Company, a French corporation, and the German Minister at Mexico, manager of the company, is completeing a survey of fruit lands in the Ures district, which, when finished, will give him privately 500,000 acres of the best orange land in the State.

A BRUTAL BUSINESS.

Where is the Society on Cruelty to Animals?

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., April 9.—Thousands of cattle have been dehorned in this section since the outbreak of the craze a few months ago, and, with but few exceptions, the animals rapidly recovered from the operations. To-day, however, news comes that several droves recently dehorned on farms west of here are in a most pitiable and serious condition. Their horns were removed March 1st and the wounds are not yet healed, and mortification is reported to have set in in the flesh of the head. About a hundred animals are thus affected.

CITY COUNCIL.

Mayor Workman and the Legislators at Outs.

THE A., T. & S. F. CO. DEED.

Other Matters Which Occupied the Attention of the Councilmen Yesterday.

The City Council met in regular session at its chambers on Second street yesterday, with President Humphreys in the chair; present, Messrs. Hanley, Mathews, Moriarty, Teed, Collins, Barrett, Gibbs, Cohn, Lovell, Sinsabaugh and Mathews.

An opinion from the City Attorney relative to the power of the City Council to sell and dispose of city lands, to the effect that such conveyance can be made, provided it is done by the enactment of an ordinance, was offered, read, received and filed.

Dr. Sinsabaugh moved that the sense of the Counsel be expressed to the effect that the Mayor sign the deed conveying the property included in the contract with the Riverside, Santa Ana and Los Angeles Railroad Company to said company. Mr. Lovell amended by instructing the Clerk to refer the opinion of the City Attorney to the Mayor, and request him to return the deed to the Council by 2 P. M. Carried. The Health officer reported the deaths in the city for the month of March, heretofore reported in the HERALD, filed. The report of the Board of Public Works, as published in the HERALD, was adopted with a few minor alterations.

Upon motion of Captain Barrett, the Street Superintendent and Chief of Police were instructed to restrain all parties from constructing stairways to basements in sidewalks.

Captain Barrett called attention to the effect that several street sprinkling hydrants should be erected in the southern part of the city for the use of carts sprinkling streets south of Washington street.

Mr. Chandler moved that the salary of the Street Superintendent be fixed at $250 per month. Mr. Cohn objected, stating that it could not be done legally.

Captain Barrett thought Gen. Baldwin had been elected with the understanding that he would receive $150 per month, and it was now not only impossible but out of place to attempt to raise it. Ample provision would be made to furnish him with the necessary number of assistants, and that ought to suffice.

Adjourned until two o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

Clerk Teed announced that the bonds issued for public improvements had been sold and $54,000, the amount of same, placed in the city treasury.

A draft of a contract with Frick Brothers for certain improvements in the construction of zanjas, and bond for the faithful performance of the same were offered, filed and approved.

The bond of the contractor having in charge the construction of a zanja on San Pedro street from Ninth to Washington street, was offered but objected to for the reason that the sureties were also security on other bonds.

On motion a recess was taken for the purpose of holding a meeting of the Board of Regents of the library. In the absence of President Workman, Mr. Humphreys was chosen as temporary chairman. After the reading and approving of the minutes of the previous meeting by the librarian, Jessie A. Gavitt, her report was presented for March. It was as follows: Balance on hand March 1st, $18.70; receipts for month, $189.90; balance on hand April 1st, $15.35.

A number of bills were presented and audited. On motion the Board adjourned.

The matter of approving the Frick Brothers' bond being again brought before the Council, on motion of Mr. Collins a vote was taken and motion to approve lost, Messrs. Cohn, Chandler and Humphreys voting no.

Mr. Cohn thought the opinion of the City Attorney should be required. He could not see why the Council should not have an attorney in attendance at the meetings. There were three in the employ of the city, and surely it was not right for the Council to be without any one to pass upon questions which were constantly arising.

In the matter relative to the specifications of the contract for the cement walks around the Sixth street Park, on motion of Capt. Barrett, the contract with Mr. McLean was changed.

A communication from the Mayor as follows was received:

To the Honorable Council of Los Angeles:

I have just received from you the following extraordinary communication, to wit:

LOS ANGELES, California, April 9th.
To the Honorable Mayor:

By order of the Council you are requested to return the deed to the Santa Fe Railroad Company at 2 P. M., either with or without your signature.

In response to this peremptory and unlawful demand made by you as one branch of the city government to an independant and coordinate branch of the same government, I have to say:

First—I have this date just received from the City Attorney his opinion upon this matter with the deed referred to, the latter having been, until this morning, in possession of that officer since his opinion was first asked, some nine months ago.

Second—I have not had time this morning, amid the press of business, to give to that opinion the careful consideration it deserves, in view of the apparent conflict with a previous verbal one given to me by the same officer, but will endeavor to do so at as early a date as possible.

Third—I have never refused (as your request might seem to imply) to sign the deed authorized by Ordinance No. 273, which is, I presume, the deed you refer to, nor do I now decline to sign it; but, as Mayor of this city, I propose to take such reasonable time as the law allows and my legal duty enjoins, in which to examine into the matter, and when I have determined upon my true and legal duty I will perform it.

As an independent and co-ordinate branch of the city government, I deny the right or authority of your honorable body to attempt to decide my course or influence my action in the performance of this or any other official duty, as I deem myself fully competent, and it is my right and duty to conduct my branch of the city government without any influence from yours, which is unauthorized by law.

If, after due examination, I shall conclude that it is my duty as Mayor to sign the deed, I will do it, and deliver it to the proper grantee named therein. But, in the meantime, I shall have to decline to comply with your irregular and unauthorized demand to deliver the same, "signed or unsigned, on or before 2 P. M." I am respectfully yours,

W. H. WORKMAN, Mayor.

Mr. Chandler moved that the communication be spread on the minutes.

Captain Barrett moved that the communicatien be deposited in the waste basket.

Mr. Lovell moved that action be deferred for one week.

Dr. Sinsabaugh hoped the Council would not act rashly. The Mayor had a right to demand time.

Mr. Collins stated he would insist upon Captain Barrett's motion. He objected to having the Mayor's slush spread upon the minutes when the Finance Committee made a report reflecting on the Mayor.

Captain Barrett thought if the Councilmen did not have dignity enough to resent such a communication they should take up their hats and go home. It was about time that it should be understood that the Council had some dignity at least.

City Attorney Daly stated that he would say very little, as the Mayor was not present, but he wished it understood that the City Attorney was always ready to deliver opinions when asked for them. His opinion had been given relative to securing a viaduct on First street, and not as to whether the city could legally convey the land. He considered it unfair of the Mayor to make such insinuations and charges.

Capt. Barrett renewed his motion, modifying it by laying it on the table. Motion lost.

City Attorney Daly demanded, as an officer of the city, that the communication be referred back to the Mayor until a truthful report be made. Upon motion of Capt. Barrett the communication was referred back to the Mayor, and ordered that it should not be spread upon the minutes.

Upon motion of Dr. Sinsabaugh, the matter of changing the specifications in the Sixth Street Park sidewalks was referred to a special Committee.

The bond of the Frick Bros. under consideration during the morning session, was on the opinion of the City Attorney and the motion of Mr. Collins approved.

The bills for services of special officers contracted at the instance of the Chief of the Police were on motion of Teed, referred to the Police Commissioners.

The report of the Finance Committee relative to the refusal of the California Central Railway Company to pay a license tax was filed and upon motion, the City Attorney was instructed to commence proceedings against the said company.

The City Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the city printing, the contract for the past year having expired.

Captain Barrett moved that hereafter no police officers or detectives be appointed without the consent of the Council. No action taken.

Captain Barrett moved that hereafter the city allow no salaries for men exclusive of the seventy regular police officers. Motion lost.

On motion of Mr. Mathews, the Cable Car Company was notified to place its iron yokes and other material in a compact form, so as to remove obstructions on the streets upon which they are deposited.

The report of the Zanja Committee was received and filed.

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were received, filed and referred to the appropriate committees: Mrs. Annie Hanley for permission to connect a waste water pipe a public zanja on the Bigelow property; A. L. Foster, for privelege to connect with zanja No. 9 E., for domestic purposes; A. C. The original petition of Mrs. Watson, asking to be appointed as a special police officer, at a salary of $80, was referred back to the Council, with the following communication from the Board of Supervisors:

STOCK EXCHANGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Transactions in the stock market to-day, except for those of first hour, were dull, tame and uninteresting, with a general drift toward lower values, and accompanied by small and insignificant fluctuations. Government bonds were dull and steady. Petroleum opened strong at 79¼, and advanced to 81 before noon on failure of recently drilled wells. The Whole Vital Machinery

Depends for the fuel, which is the origin of its propulsory force upon the stomach. In that hidden alembic the food undergoes the chemical changes which transmute it into blood, from which the system draws the material that reimburses it for its daily losses of tissue. These, of course, are daily augmented in disease. If the stomach, therefore, is weakened or disordered, the system is deprived of sustenance. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters can be relied upon to facilitate and renew digestion when that function is interrupted by weakness of the stomach. Billiousness, or a diversion of the bile from its proper channel, which causes constipation, is also remedied by it. Heartburn, wind on the stomach, sick headache, fur upon the tongue and other symptoms of stomach and liver disorder, it speedily removes. Malarial complaints of every sort, kidney and bladder troubles, constipation, rheumatism and neuralgia yield when it is used regularly and persistently.

Santa Ynez Valley Lands

FOR SALE IN LOTS TO SUIT, FROM 10 ACRES UPWARDS.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of intending purchasers to the lands of the Santa Ynez Land and Improvement Company, which is without doubt the best investment in California. These lands can be bought in any quantities desired and are as good for the cultivation of Olives, Prunes, Oranges, Walnuts, Almonds, Grapes, or in fact any fruits or vegetables that are grown in Southern California as any lands in Los Angeles county, and can be bought on reasonable terms and at a very small part of the price that would be asked for the same lands here, so that it offers one of the best opportunities to parties selling out here to reinvest. To Eastern purchasers this is one of the best opportunities to invest in lands that are bound to be worth double the price that are now asked for these within a very few months, as both the Southern Pacific and A., T. & S. F. Railroads have surveyed through the entire tract, which will double the value of these lands as soon as completed past this tract.

Descriptive Catalogue, Maps, Price and Terms furnished on appplication. Every facility will be given purchasers who would like to visit the tract before purchasing. Vehicles will be on hand to take customers over these lands and everything done to make a visit to this section agreeable.

CATARRH!

THROAT DISEASES, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA,

CONSUMPTION.

Together with diseases of the EYE, EAR and HEART, successfully treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,
Hollenbeck Block, cor. Spring and Second.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by

DR. WILLIAMS.

With his new system of medicated Inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

CATARRH.

Catarrh is often regarded by the patient as a cold in the head, and he often expresses his astonishment at his remarkable tendency to contract a fresh cold. Indeed, he declares he is scarcely free from one cold before he takes another; and he is always exceedingly careful; it is also a matter of surprise to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times many of the symptoms of Catarrh may seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off; but another class of symptoms soon appear, and he learns to his horror that instead of recovery from the disease, it is somewhat changed in its character and has extended to the throat. A sense of weariness is sometimes felt in reading, speaking or singing, hoarseness at times occurs, a sensation of dryness is sometimes felt in the throat, or it appears that some foreign substance, as for instance, a hair, obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of languor and fatigue, the breath lessens upon a little exertion, a short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there was not room enough in the chest to breathe; these and other symptoms occur after the disease has made considerable progress. Then it is a time when consumption is about to begin its dreadful work. Up to this time the progress of the disease may have been slow, and the patient may, in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years, and has not seemed to become much worse, and trusts that he will "by and-by" recover. But this delusion is the grand error which has peopled our cemeteries with consumptive forms, as all forms of catarrh end finally in consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severely require.

By the employment of proper inhalation in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray), we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the pharynx and nasal passages, for air will find its way into the most remote and intricate cavities, where it is impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless, unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best reference from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so, can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address

Kohler & Frohling Tract

If you will Take Time to Examine the Sketch Below

AND SEE JUST WHERE IT IS LOCATED,

You will find it to be CLOSE INSIDE, with all the conveniences and advantages of living in the city. White within easy walking distance of all the central and leading points, it is accommodated by TWO STREET CAR LINES. Is under ELECTRIC LIGHT.

WATER has been piped to every lot. Streets are being graded, graveled, curbed and cement sidewalked on official grades, to be finally accepted by the city and sprinkled thereafter, thus making it, when done, the MOST COMPLETELY FINISHED TRACT ever offered in Los Angeles.

Special Inducements Offered to Immediate Builders.

It fronts on two of the great coming thoroughfares of the city, viz: SEVENTH ST., the greatest cross-artery of the town, and CENTRAL AVE., destined soon to be our most accessible and grandest drive, leading south through Vernondale and the richest horticultural portion of Los Angeles county.

In this section the greatest margins of the advance are yet to be and surely will come. More general improvements inaugurated and on foot in this direction than any other portion of the city. This ground, for healthfulness and comfort, is excelled by none. All things duly considered, it is undoubtedly the cheapest property offered in this market to-day. ☞ WILL COST YOU NOTHING to investigate and judge intelligently for yourself, as I will be pleased to convey you to the property and show you its merits at all hours.
